

SOFMMOO's AWARD RULES
(up to date 2018)

Article 1. Every year, a work about Manual and Orthopaedic Medicine, presented by a young author, can benefit from a reward.

Article 2. The award is attributed to the author of an original work about Manual and Orthopaedic-Osteopathic Medicine. The candidates have to be french or foreign Medicine Doctors. The work will be carefully written, and the subject of the thesis or the brief can deal of anatomy, neurophysiology, biomechanics, clinics, therapeutics. A computer-readable medium will be adressed to the general secretary of the SOFMMOO.

Article 3. The jury is constituted by the Executive Board of the SOFMMOO, which decides each year supremely of the deadline of deposite of files.

Article 4. A bank note of 1000 euro will be offer to the closing session by the président or the treasurer of the SOFMMOO.

Article 5. On the occasion of the prize ceremony, the recipient must present his work on a plenary session of the congress, and have given a paper for publication in the «Manual and Osteopathic Medicine's review ».

Article 6. The recipient must be registered on the congress at his expenses. The current rule is submitted every year at the opinion of the Executive board, in order to possible modifications.

Secrétariat général : Dr David CYPEL, 85 route des Vignasses, 06500 MENTON
cypel.david@gmail.com